Voters Awareness Campaign

The department of Political Science embrace various experiential & participative learning activities to make students aware of the political culture & system. The following activities are carried out for the same purpose to ensure students active & enthusiastic participation.

After completing the age of eighteen years every citizen of India gets right to vote & contribute to democracy .But in last few years many people are turning away from voting due to political indifference causing decline in percentage of voting .The “ Voters Awareness Campaign ” is started to raise the percentage.
